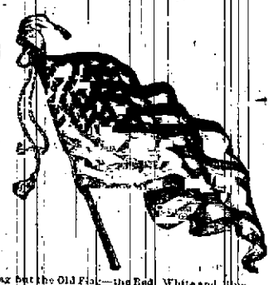
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 1, 1863.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue.
With the stars of a Union unbroken and free!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner, your valor must save

Mr. Raynor and the Official Clique.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Having been charged by the Washington Statesman with being the Official Clique candidate, I wish to state that it is false, for I am pledged to no man or set of men in any way whatever—and I challenge the opposition to make the same statement.

J. O. RAYNOR.

The above refutation by Mr. Raynor of the charge of being the candidate of the "Official Clique" hardly needs comment. It speaks for itself.

Mr. Cole must be hardly pressed indeed when he comes out upon the stump, and in his organ, the Walla Walla Statesman, with such manufactured charges as the above, so obviously false and so perfectly transparent that he who runs may read the motive, even though he were near sighted, and had lost his spectacles. Indeed, every one who knows anything about the action of the Union Convention, understands very well (and no one better than Geo. E. Cole) that the struggle there was between a Walla Walla and a Puget Sound candidate, and that Mr. Raynor was a new man, taken up during the session of the Convention as a compromise candidate, and was selected especially because he was not obnoxious to the charge of sectional prejudice or affiliation with parties or cliques. Mr. Cole, who very well knows that Dr. Henry and perhaps some other Federal officials in Washington Territory, have rendered themselves justly obnoxious to the indignation of the people, unjustly, unscrupulously and ungenerously, yes, dishonestly, undertakes, by bold, naked, unsupported assertions, to make the people believe that Mr. Raynor is Dr. Henry's candidate. This Mr. Raynor utterly repudiates and declares to be false. Now, is the pretense that he is the tool of Dr. Henry and his faction worthy a man who professes to be an honest man and a patriot? We know that it is unworthy a man who is no honest man and a patriot; but it is just what we should expect from a man who keeps the company in which Mr. Cole is at present found. Evil company as well as communications corrupt not only good manners but good morals.

NEW POSTAGE LAW.—We remind our readers that the amended law—one of the best things done by the last Congress for the Pacific coast—goes into operation to-day. Postage on single letters to America is now only three cents. Everybody can afford to write every day. Drop letters require two cent stamps, and will not be delivered without them. Nothing but postage stamps will pass, and letters bearing revenue stamps will not be forwarded, but go to the Dead Office, the tomb of all irregular correspondence.

STONEWALL JACKSON.—Papers are rehashing the old anecdotes of Stonewall Jackson. We have one which is new, and we believe authentic, illustrating his contempt for cowards and doughfaces. When one of the corps of the Army of the Potomac was moving forward to join Gen. Burnside, at the battle of Fredericksburg, an officer in one of the regiments, a Democratic Southern sympathizer, fell out within sound of the guns of the enemy and was made a prisoner. He was taken to the headquarters of Stonewall Jackson, who, learning of his cowardly conduct and Southern sympathies, ordered his shoulder straps to be stripped off, and that he be sent back within the Union lines, remarking that he should be loth to believe that the Union army had many such officers. Jackson was himself an earnest and brave man, and naturally had a contempt for shams and sneaks.—Boston Journal.

It is said that Stonewall Jackson was the only officer to whom Gen. Scott ever applied an epithet in his official dispatches. In the Mexican war Jackson was Lieutenant of Magruder's Battery of Artillery, and, as Magruder devoted himself constantly to the whisky bottle, the Lieutenant was compelled to do all the work of the command. On the eve of the battle of Chepultepec, Jackson was taking his battery up the road, when he encountered, just after passing around a turn in the road, a battery of four guns, which the Mexicans had planted behind a small earthwork. A fight ensued, in which every horse and man in Jackson's command were killed or wounded—he only being left unharmed. The Mexicans rushed upon the battery, but Jackson would not leave the guns, when suddenly his enemies were flanked and compelled to leave in great haste. General Scott, in his dispatches of the battle, mentioned him as "the brave Lieutenant Jackson."

The Independent, Beecher's paper, magnanimously says: "Henceforth, we know him no more after the flesh. He is no longer a foe. We think of him now as a noblemindedgentleman,—a rare and eminent christian! For years he has been an active member of the Presbyterian Church, of which he was a ruling Elder. He never, in the occupations of the camp, or temptations of campaigns, lost the fervor of his piety, or remitted his christian duties. Let no man suppose the North will triumph over a fallen son with insulting gratulations! Nowhere else will the name of Jackson be more honored. Not for adhesion to the cause of slavery, but for his unblemished personal character,—for his devout piety, and for his military genius."

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to June 24th.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A special despatch says the 1st Massachusetts cavalry lost 164 killed, wounded and missing in the late fight at Aldie.

The steamer from Havana of the 20th ins. Porto Rico, has arrived. A report had reached Havana, said to have been brought by a British steamer from St. Thomas, that the private steamer Alabama was in Santa Cruz. A letter-of-marque had gone up stream and went to attack her.—Heavy firing was heard in the direction of Santa Cruz. The English mail steamer was due at Havana on the 21st inst., when all the facts would be known.

NEW YORK, June 24th.—Money easy. Sterling dull at 156½. Gold opened at 122, closed at 123.

Admiral Foote continues to sink. There are no hopes of his recovery. He is almost unconscious.

HARRISBURG, June 24th.—A telegraph operator at Shippingsburg, telegraphs to-day, that the rebels were one mile from that town, and advancing in this direction.

CHICAGO, June 24th.—Dispatches from the east in regard to the rebel campaign in Shenandoah valley are still confused. It is impossible yet to know the enemy's intentions. Several opinions are advanced—the most probable of which is that Lee's object is to obtain supplies and hold the valley until harvest is now almost ready to be gathered, and should a favorable opportunity offer, advance on Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 24th.—A special despatch says that the main body of the rebel army is in Shenandoah valley. Many suppose they will come through the gap and attack our army, though the long delay would insure the defeat of that movement.

Dispatches from Gen. Banks have been received by the War Department, to the effect that having established his batteries within 300 yards of the rebel works and commenced a vigorous cannonading, he summoned Gen. Gardner to surrender, and on his refusal an assault was made by our forces, who gained a position between 50 and 100 yards of the rebel works, which they held. Gen. Parke was severely wounded. Gen. Banks is confident of success.

YORK'S POINT, June 19th.—The siege of Vicksburg continues. The rebels on the south side of the river have not made their appearance since they were driven from Richmond, La. Prisoners taken at that place expressed joy on being taken by white men, as they expected to quarters from blacks, of whom they stand in great dread since the battle of Milliken's Bend.

WASHINGTON, June 24th.—Grant telegraphs as follows: Rear of Vicksburg, June 18th—Everything is progressing well here. Johnston's force is at Yazoo City. Clinton and Brownsville are said to be on short rations. The health and condition of our troops is excellent.

CAIRO, June 24th.—Many things are said to have conspired to induce Gen. McClellan's removal, among them tardiness in obeying orders, and in some instances positive disobedience.

HARRISBURG, June 24th.—The city has been in a high state of excitement all day. Reports from Cumberland Valley show that the rebels are rapidly approaching in this direction in strong force. No troops would be likely to venture so far from their base of operations into an enemy's country without a force sufficient to act on the offensive. So far no opposition has been made to their advance. The rebels are within two miles of Carlisle, advancing. Gen. Knipe, commanding there, will probably give them battle at that point. They will probably appear in front of that place to-night. Our cavalry have fallen back. There is no doubt that a strong force is within a sustaining distance of the advancing foe.

MCCONNELSVILLE, Pa., June 24th.—Farmers are compelled to hide their horses in the mountains. The rebels are overrunning Franklin county.

LATER—4 P. M.—Rebel infantry are coming over the mountains from Mercersburg, in force. Roads are all blockaded, but poorly defended.

BALTIMORE, June 24th.—Latest news from Frederick, (Md.), says no rebels were there. Heavy rebel forces were in the valley west of Boonsboro. They are moving northeast, and have 64 pieces of artillery.

NEW YORK, June 25th.—A Harrisburg dispatch to the Herald, dated June 24th, says that great alarm prevailed there. It is the opinion of Generals Franklin and Couch that the rebels are advancing with serious intentions on Harrisburg. Every preparation has been made to receive them.

Judge Whitmore counted 18 pieces of artillery, and estimates the column to be 30,000 strong. A dispatch dated at Gleason's Station, five miles from Carlisle, says our forces evacuated Shippingsburg last night; the enemy charged into town firing several volleys, but no one was hurt.

NO MORE STOCK DRIVEN NORTH.—A letter from Olympia says:

On the last trip up of the steamer Eliza Anderson, at Port Angeles, Capt. Finch received orders from Victor Smith that no more stock could be transported north of the line. So by the next breeze that sweeps from the north you may expect to hear fierce howlings from the people in that section. Where this decree comes from, is not known. Some say that it is a mere dispatch from headquarters; others, that Victor is putting an old law into force. Whatever the cause, it is putting a damper upon the Sound trade. There are several hundred head of beef cattle in Thurston and Pierce counties contracted for and awaiting shipment to Victoria. The English navy and military posts, as well as the people, have all to be supplied with American beef. I hope, for the credit of the Government, that this miserable appointee is not doing this out of revenge. There is little love lost between him and the people of this whole country, either American or English. On his last trip to San Francisco, he was arrested at Esquimault for debt, and had no easy time in getting away. That may not have been his mind or increased his love for the human family in general. Very likely not.

The order referred to above very likely comes under a general one recently issued from the War Department forbidding the transportation of horses and cattle, under the impression that all stock of this kind would be needed in our own country for the army and navy. If such is the fact, it will probably be rescinded, as far as this coast is concerned, as it certainly ought to be.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR THE FOURTH.—All persons desirous of contributing meats, pastry, poultry, cheese, butter, &c., &c., for the dinner on the coming anniversary of American Independence, will please leave their address at the stores of E. J. Northrup & Co., S. J. McCormick, Hodge & Cake, or with Alex. Dodge, at the Salt Works, and a conveyance will be sent to the places designated on Friday next.

Opinion of Judge Shattuck.

In the matter of the license law of the City of Portland.

Before Hon. E. D. Shattuck, Multnomah County, State of Oregon.

The City of Portland vs. M. Stock:

The defendant was brought before the Recorder of the City of Portland, upon a charge of violating Ordinance No. 141 of said City, committed by unlawfully carrying on the business of a retail dealer in merchandise, without having first obtained a license therefor as required by said ordinance. After several motions, made by the counsel for the defendant, had been over-ruled, the defendant pleaded "not guilty," and was convicted and a fine of ten dollars and costs of suit adjudged against him, in default of payment whereof he was to be committed to the City jail for ten days.

The cause comes into this court upon appeal, and is submitted upon the issue of law made upon the record. Several questions were discussed in the argument, but the one most strongly urged is of a constitutional character, and is presented by two points specified in defendant's motion to dismiss the proceeding, as follows:

"1st. The charter confers no power upon the city government to enact Ordinance No. 141."

"6th. The amendment to the city charter under which this ordinance is enacted, is unconstitutional and void."

It is conceded as the established rule that the authority conferred upon municipal corporations by their charters, is to be strictly construed, and must be closely pursued. Applying this rule, it is not insisted that the authority of the City of Portland "to license, tax and regulate dealers in goods, wares and merchandise," was conferred by the charter as originally enacted. If it exists at all, it must be derived from the act approved October 17th, 1862.

The constitutionality of this act is denied by the defendant, and all proceedings under it are, it is insisted, invalid. This makes a critical examination of the objections to the act necessary.

The act in question is entitled "An Act to amend an act entitled An Act to Incorporate the City of Portland," and is divided into eight sections.

Section 1. repeals, by reference to the numbers, sections one and two of Article VII. of the act referred to in the title. Sections two to six inclusive, provide for the improvement and repair of streets, and for the modes of enforcing the regulations made by the Mayor and Common Council therefor, being a substitute for the sections repealed. Section seven reads as follows: "That in addition to the powers now possessed by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Portland, the said Mayor and Common Council shall have power within the corporate limits of said city: 1st. To license, tax and regulate hacks, cabs and other vehicles, and all offensive or noxious trades or occupations; 2d. To license, tax and regulate dealers in goods, wares and merchandise, liquors, provisions, fruits, vegetables, meats, and all persons engaged in assaying, melting, or refining the precious metals; 3d. To license, tax and regulate eating houses, hotels, and boarding houses; with an exception exempting from subdivision two, "persons wholly dealing in provisions," &c., "produced, raised or manufactured by themselves." Section eight provides that, on account of the condition of the streets in the City of Portland, the act should take effect upon its approval by the Governor.

Comparing this act with the original charter, it clearly appears (and doubtless was intended) to be an amendment to Article VII. and to Section 7 of Article IV., which last named section contains an enumeration of the powers of the Mayor and Common Council.

It is alleged that this act is unconstitutional and void, because it is an amendment or revision, and has been made or attempted in a manner forbidden by Section 22 of Article IV. of the Constitution of this State. I think this objection to the act is valid and should be sustained. I come to this conclusion not without hesitation, and a full consciousness of the responsibility assumed in declaring a solemn act of the Legislative Assembly unconstitutional and void. The consequences of such a decision by the court of final resort might be of serious importance in respect to the past or future legislation of the State; but when the meaning of the constitution is clear, consequences should not have any weight in favor of a different construction.

The 22d Section of Article IV of our constitution provides as follows: "No act shall ever be revised or amended by mere reference to its title, but the act revised or section amended shall be set forth and published at full length."

The clear and plain meaning of this section, it would seem, cannot be mistaken. If the words are allowed to have their usual and undisputed signification, it must have been intended that whenever an act or a part of an act shall be amended or revised, the old law shall be exhibited on the same page with the proposed amendment; so that the legislator may see at a glance the contrast and be the better prepared to act understandingly. This, I think, is the only grammatical meaning of the words used, and the only meaning the words should be allowed to have. The rule generally applied to written instruments applies here, "that in the absence of ambiguity, no exposition shall be made which is opposed to the express words of the instrument—in other words, it is not allowed to interpret what has no need of interpretation."—Smith's Com., sec. 505.

It is suggested, however, that a fair and correct construction of section 22 only requires that the act revised or amended, should be set forth as revised or as amended; in other words, that the act amended is only to be republished in full with the amendments incorporated in their proper place. But if this were admitted to be the true rule of construction, it would not relieve this amendment of the objections urged against it; for it does not conform even to this rule. The act in question purports by its title to be an amendment to the original charter as a whole, and the very fact required by this rule would be a re-enactment of the whole act, with these amendments duly embodied; or had the title indicated only the purpose to amend Article VII or Article IV. then the re-enactment of the entire article as amended, which has not been done in this case.

The opinion I entertain is sanctioned upon principle, by legislative precedent, and by judicial authority.

The section of the constitution referred to was adopted for good reasons. It has been the practice of our territorial legislature to revise and amend existing laws by reference only to the title, and by inserting in the body of an act so referred to a section, or it is some section a line or more. This loose practice had caused serious confusion and created much doubt and difficulty in determining what was or was not the law on many subjects. Our statutes were becoming multiplied and fragmentary—more like tattered patchwork than like a compact and clear body of laws. Amendatory acts were passed without much consideration, and often with only vague ideas of what effect the proposed amendment would have upon the law sought to be amended. The convention wisely determined to interpose a check to this practice by incorporating section 22 into the constitution. This clause was inserted (to use the language of the supreme court of the State of Maryland upon a like subject) "for the purpose of preventing incautious and fraudulent legislation, and to enable members to act knowingly upon all subjects, and to guard them from the contingency of voting for the repeal or revival of laws through mistake or accident, under the deceptive language often employed in the title of acts."

Our State Legislature, though not uniformly, yet to a considerable extent, at the two first sessions after the adoption of the constitution, placed the same construction upon section 22 that is insisted upon by the defendant's counsel in this case. (See laws of 1859, page 49, and special acts of same session, pages 3 and 5. Laws of 1860, pages 84, 85 and 107.

Article IV. of our constitution, relating to the legislative department, is almost a literal transcript of that of the State of Indiana, and section 22 is taken verbatim from the constitution of that State. It is pertinent, then, to ascertain how this section has been construed by the courts of that State, and their construction, if it ought to be with us high authority as to its meaning.

This question was directly involved in the case of Langdon vs. Applegate, and was decided by the supreme court of that State in the year 1854.—5 Ind. R. 528. The action in that case was one attempting to amend a section of a prior act in this manner, viz: "The 22d section of said act is hereby amended to read as follows, to wit:" Then follows the section as amended. The court, after reviewing the history of the constitutional provision in their State constitutional convention, examining it upon principle and citing the legislative practice under, and the judicial construction of a like provision in the constitution of Louisiana, as exhibited by the legislative enactments and judicial decisions of that State, conclude by saying, "We are therefore of the opinion that the section of the amendatory act which attempts to amend said 22d section, without setting out the same at full length, is unconstitutional and void." Stuart, Justice, dissented, but delivered no opinion.

In Rogers, administrator, vs. The State, the same question was again before the court, and the ruling above cited was affirmed.—6 Ind. R. 31.

The same opinion was recognized as law by the same court in the case of Wilkins vs. Miller, 9 Ind. R. 100, and again in Littler vs. Smiley.—Ibid. 110.

The same question again directly arose in the case of Kinnon vs. Shull, 9 Ind. R. 154, and from a note appended to the report, it seems that the whole subject was re-examined upon the argument, and the court say as follows: "One of the principal questions in this case is, whether the supreme court will adhere to the decision in the case of Langdon vs. Applegate.—5 Ind. 327. The court determine to adhere to the ruling in that case."

The question was again raised in the case of Armstrong vs. Berrytmen, 13 Ind. 422, and after argument the court conclude their opinion in these words: "It has been so often settled by the adjudication of this court, that an amendment of a statute or section cannot be made without setting out the amended statute or section at full length, that the question should be considered thoroughly and finally settled."

I am therefore of opinion that the act approved 17th October, 1862, which attempts to amend the charter of the City of Portland in the manner above explained, is unconstitutional and void.

There were several other important points discussed upon the argument, but as that above decided is deemed conclusive of the issues in this case, I express no opinion on the other points raised.

The motion to dismiss the proceeding and for the discharge of the defendant should be allowed, with costs against the plaintiff. Ordered accordingly.

THE LICENSE ORDINANCE.—We publish this morning, at the request of many citizens, the opinion of Judge Shattuck, of the Circuit Court, upon the validity of the ordinance recently passed by our City Council imposing a duty upon the business of the city. We do not propose to discuss the question raised and for the present decided. Possibly the case may go the Supreme Court, but it is undeniable that the judgment of the Court meets with the general approbation of those of our citizens who have felt that the ordinance in question was peculiarly oppressive and injurious to their interests. Doubtless the Mayor and the City Council believed in good faith that it was the best and only way to secure a revenue for city purposes. They simply did their duty in putting the matter in such a shape that judicial investigation could be made. Citizens whose rights were affected felt that a hardship more grievous than was endurable, was imposed upon them, and therefore at the suggestion and by the efforts of Mr. P. Cohen, who was equally sincere in his convictions, measures have been taken to secure such a decision as should settle the questions at issue. For the time being, these are disposed of, and if hereafter the Supreme Court shall decide that the opinion now published is incorrect, we are sure that our citizens will cheerfully submit to what now seems to be an ordinance rather more heavy than is just or reasonable.

THE RACE—MARION NOWHERE.—In the trotting match, which was advertised for yesterday, J. B. Emery & Co., of Marion county, came to time with a black horse, (one of their Black Hawk stock) which, after a good deal of bantering, they let go against Sherlock & Bacon's colt for one of the purses. The colt took the purse quite handy. It is said the race made by the colt was 2.50. But little interest was felt in the time, as the Emery horse was nowhere. The sorrel mare entered by Emery & Co. turned up among the missing when Sherlock & Bacon brought out their Indian horse. The other purse was therefore awarded to belong to the Indian horse. A good deal of money changed hands, the reputation of Marion county for fast trotting horses being induced many to back the horses named by Mr. Emery. The losers will not be likely hereafter quite so readily as they did yesterday.

KNIGHT TEMPLAR MASONRY.—A commandery of this order, known as Oregon Commandery No. 1, was instituted and dedicated in usual form, in this city, and its officers installed on Friday evening last by Sir Knight A. Holbrook, acting as G. Master, under a charter granted by the General Grand Lodge Encampment of the U. S., at its last regular session. The following are the present officers: Sir J. McCraken, E. Com.; Sir J. H. Couch, Generallissimo; Sir R. R. Thompson, Capt. Gen.; Sir D. Rutledge, Prelate; Sir C. H. Lewis, S. W.; Sir J. Myrick, J. W.; Sir J. C. Ainsworth, Treas.; Sir E. W. Tracy, Rec.; Sir T. J. Holmes, St. B.; Sir J. R. Bayley, Sw. B. The times of regular meetings will be hereafter announced.

AFTER THE WRONG MAN.—We understand that after the decision of Judge Shattuck upon the license ordinance had been made public yesterday, the City Collector was immediately beset by a number of those who paid to him their assessment under said ordinance, demanding the return of their money forthwith, and some went so far as to accompany the demand with a belligerent threat, if it was not immediately complied with. Collector McCue very properly informed them that he had not their money in his possession or within his control; that he was but an officer of the city government, whose sworn duty was to carry out all enactments of the city council, and this duty, required him to collect these assessments and pay the money over to City Treasurer, which had he done. Further, the City Treasurer had no authority to dispose of this money except upon warrant drawn by order of the City Council; hence, the proper and only source to apply for the refunding of their money was to the Common Council. As the law upon which this ordinance was based has been declared to be unconstitutional and void, and cannot be enforced upon all who were required by its provisions to pay a license tax, it is fair to presume that the Council will, at an early day, order the return of what money has been paid in, when each will be made happy by having his own back again.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY.—The Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society will hold a meeting to-day, July 1st, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the Presbyterian Church. A full attendance is greatly desired, as business of importance is to be transacted. MRS. A. C. GIBBS, Sec'y.

Notice.—The Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society will hold their regular meeting in their Hall on the corner of Third and Oak streets thus, Wednesday evening, July 1st, 1863, at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

AND SANATIVE PILLS
HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and folded such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, (and there is no place on the continent where they have not been sold), that it would seem unjust to expect Dr. Jayne to bestow further attention upon them through the medium of the press. It is due, however, to the suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from Diseases of the Lungs & Throat, inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom have not before heard this remedy, that there should be allusion to some of the cases where the multitude of testimonials which they have received in favor of the
EXPECTORANT
Operates Immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT.
While the ANATIVE PILLS, by promoting regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and insure the perfect operation of the former.
Attention is invited to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietor, viz:

UPPER DARBY, Chester Co., Pa., Sept 15, 1859.
Dr. D. JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most prominent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained a bottle of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured.
NATHAN PENNYPACKER

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 17, 1860
H. W. TOWELL, Esq., New York.—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing, for nearly two years, and had almost lost all confidence in the power of medicine, when, at your friend's suggestion, I began the use of Dr. Jayne's EXPECTORANT. I began to feel relief after having commenced to take it, and in about half a month, the expectoration was entirely stopped, the breathing became free, and I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.
I remain, my dear Towell, with esteem, Your servant and friend, J. B. MONTE.

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co., O., May 31, 1860.
Dr. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: Our household order Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well.
J. H. COFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co. Pa., July 23, 1863.
Dr. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: Myson was for nine and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles of the former and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day.
JOHN HENRY

We should add that the above Drs. are sold to Mr. Henry the medicine for his wife, and knew that the statement is true.
MERRY, WILHELM & CO.

For a greater number and variety of certificates, and fuller information regarding these and other of Dr. D. Jaynes' and Sons' Preparations, reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC, which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicines.

IMPROVED TIGHT-STITCH FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE
Are unequaled by any for beauty, simplicity of construction and efficiency in working, and will do
IN A PERFECT MANNER,
A greater range of work than any other machine.
The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money; but if you want either for your own use, you want an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.
LADD & WEBSTER'S
Sewing Machines
use a straight needle: curved ones are liable to break.
They make a tight lock-stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.
Every machine is sent from our office threaded, and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.
The subscribers have the General Agency of THESE SUPERIOR MACHINES for the Pacific Coast.

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.
It is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however desperate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.
If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.
If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.
If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning, noon and night—it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.
If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food dist. your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.
If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.
If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.
If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.
If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.
If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.
If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.
If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea: it will check out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.
